

Public Comment Received as of April 29, 2022

Gerard Simon, Texas

The current RRC has not developed an annual plan that protects public safety and minimizes damage to the environment. Why would this new plan be any different. I disagree that the RRC strives to do anything but line the members' pockets with money from the large corporations they protect. Pathetic!